1/2 mill reduction voted in county tax

Maybe up 3 1/4 mills

City tax hike looms

A tax increase of perhaps three and one-quarter mills looms for Bay St. Louis in the coming fiscal year, Mayor John A. Scifide indicated this week. City Commission Council continues in day-to-day session considering applications for equalization on assessments as well as completion of assessments before setting the millage to carry the budget for 1962-63.

Based on the present assessment outlook, the mayor said he anticipates a one and one-quarter mill hike will be necessary to care for the Bay St. Louis Separate Municipal School District's budget while two more mills may have to be added for the general fund of the city, upping it from 13 to the maximum of 15.

Scifide also reported that commission council is working on a capital improvement program which it might finance through a bond issue. Drainage and street widening are the major projects embodied in this. It was not indicated that this will be in the immediate future.

On the assessments, a number of new houses in the city remain to be figured while the "outside" area of the school district is complete and Waveland's assessment must be reduced by the standard 10 per cent for school district taxation.

Taxes for the county as a whole were reduced one half a mill by the board of supervisors at its meeting Monday.

The board cut the millage on the Hancock General Hospital bond fund from three to one and on the health and sickness fund from one and a half to one. Supervisors concurred with the county school board and raised the district maintenance levy from 10 to 11 mills, the financing of Pearl River Junior College from one mill to one and a half mill, and reinstated a one half mill for advertising that had been deleted from the last two years' budget.

For Beat 5 there is an additional two mill levy to repay the bonds authorized earlier this year and for Beat 4 there is an extra 6 mills for another road bond issue. The overall effect of the board's action is to reduce taxes by one-half mill.

The county levy for 1962-63 will be 23 1/2 mills plus 30 mills for schools, with an additional six mills in Beat 4 for road bonds and a similar two mills in Beat 5. Depending on where you live the millage will be 23 1/2, 23 1/2, 25 1/2 or 29 1/2, the only changes being an overall reduction of one-half mill.

The specific levies were: county general, seven mills; county road and bridge, seven mills; school levies of 8, 11 and 11 mills, up one from last year; where you live the millage will be 23 1/2, 23 1/2, 25 1/2 or 29 1/2, the only changes being an overall reduction of one-half mill.

Lucien Gex, attorney for the board, argued for the two-mill decrease in the hospital bond fund while R. G. Hubbard, Jr., president of the board, contended there should be only a one-mill drop. Hubbard finally went along with Gex' advice after the attorney said that this method would save about $2,300 a year in bank service charges even though the bonds are not callable.

Other major matter considered by the board was the adoption of next year's budget. Supervisors voted against application for state aid road on the Dummy Line Road project on the grounds that Beas 1, 2 and 5 are due money next. First priority was asked for Hickory Creek and second to a 6.5 mile strip which extends 1.5 miles in Beat 3.

Some complications, there being some occasions when they needed to come to the hospital in the mornings.

On the other hand, Logue said 75 per cent of those responding said they would like to visit at night, 20 per cent preferred the afternoon and five per cent the morning.

Following consultation with the nurses and medical staff it was agreed to discontinue the morning period. The administrator said this does not mean that in special instances a visitor will not be permitted to see a patient in the morning if a request is made. Afternoon hours are 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. and evening period is 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

4 file for Beat 1 seat, other elections in offing

Four candidates for the special election for Beat 1 supervisor filed with Circuit Clerk Lamar Odis by the Sept. 15 deadline.

Seeking to serve for the remainder of the term of the late Charles A. Russ, Jr., are Harlan G. Dean, presently constable for the beat, Lester Hoyer, the current justice of the peace there; E. G. (Jim) Kelly and Carl Miller.

The election, called by the county election commissioners, is set for Tuesday, Oct. 23, with polling places in the beat open from 7 a.m. until 6 p.m.

Two other elections in the county are scheduled this year for two seats on the county board of education and for Waveland town officers. The school board and Democratic primary elections in Waveland both are scheduled Nov. 6, date also of the Congressional election and balloting on the proposed constitutional amendment to make appointive the state board of education.

Up for balloting on the school board this year are the Beat 1 and 2 seats, Charles Murphy, incumbent from Beat 1, is expected to run again but Alton D. Keller, the Beat 2 member, resides in the area which is a part of the Picayune Municipal Separate School District and therefore is not eligible for re-election.

To date there have been no developments in the Waveland town race.

In both those cases, deadline for filing is 30 days before Nov. 6.

Morning visiting hours at Hancock General Hospital will be discontinued beginning Oct. 1 as a result of a poll of the public conducted by the auxiliary in cooperation with the hospital and medical staffs. Administrator Thomas O. Logue announced this week.

Because of the many patient care duties which must be carried on during the morning hours, a questionnaire was published in the local press last month seeking public views on visiting hours.

Logue said 150 replies were received, 124 of which said discontinuing the morning visiting period would not be of any inconvenience. Twenty-six persons said the change might cause

5 more tracts sold in NASA fee area

Five more tracts in the NASA fee area have been closed during the last week at a cost of $39,188, the Corps of Engineers real estate office here reported Wednesday.

Sales were Paul H. Holmes and James K. Dukes, .46 acre, $4,400; James Wyman, .62 acre, $3,450; Lula T. Brown, 160 acres, $21,000; Lula T. Brown and Edmond L. McGehee et al., 80 acres, $10,300, and one mineral purchase, J. E. Stockstill, 3.80 acres, $38.

Teletype system approved

Inclusion of Bay St. Louis and Hancock County into the southern district of a state-wide civil defense teletype system was approved at meetings of two governing bodies on Monday.

George Norfleet of V. Kern Union and F. Lawrence, representative of the State Civil Defense office, outlined the plans for the communication set-up to the board of supervisors and set that with nine stations in south Mississippi already approved, cost here would run $119 per month. If 14 can be secured it will drop to $106.

Bay St. Louis Mayor John A. Scifide told the supervisors that City Commission Council was prepared to approve $40 as its share and Waveland Mayor Garfield Ladner agreed to get that municipality to put up $20, leaving the balance up to the supervisors.

The CD official said the system would be used on the basis of six priorities, civil defense emergencies ranking first, followed by police use, and civil defense routine. It would be usable by other government agencies and be particularly vital on the Gulf Coast in event of hurricanes.

He recommended that the equipment be located here in the sheriff's or city police offices so it could be attended 24 hours a day.

Lawrence handed the supervisors a check for $1,445 for reimbursement on civil defense equipment purchases and reported a check in a similar amount is still due.

Blood bank faces need for biggest drawing yet

The Hancock County Blood Bank is confronted with the task of stimulating the biggest blood drawing ever when it convenes at 8 p.m. today at the Legion Home to plan for the event.

John D. Rutherford, Jr., president of the blood bank, said the local supply serviced through the American Red Cross regional blood center in Mobile already was seven pints overdrawn through August, indicating that by the time the next drawing can be arranged in mid-October the figure will be around 100 pints.

During August 57 pints were used at Hancock General Hospital and 26 at out of town hospitals for a total consumption of 83 pints. That leaves all of September and at least half of October to go, he noted.

Only about half a dozen walk-in donors have been used since the May drawing, all in emergencies. Rutherford emphasized the need for those who have used blood to have it replaced at the next drawing if the blood bank is to continue to operate.

Letters were sent some time ago to the 42 organizations in the county requesting them to name blood bank representatives but less than half have replied. These names are needed, Rutherford asserted, and the individuals should attend tonight's session.

Hammond takes teaching post in Philadelphia

Dr. Keith Hammond, pediatrician who has been associated with the Martinich-Schmidt Clinic since last March, disclosed this week that he has accepted a post as associate in clinical pediatrics at Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia.

Dr. Hammond and his family, who have been residing on Beach Blvd., Waveland, will leave here next Thursday to make their home at 218 Limestone Lane, Willow Grove, Pa.

He will assume his new teaching duties Oct. 1. He moved his pediatrics practice here in March.

Deputies nab 2 juveniles in car theft

Two 15-year-old juveniles, five time escapees from Columbia Training School, were arrested on U. S. 90 between step lights at Beach Blvd. and Dunbar Avenue at 9:25 p.m. Sunday after abandoning the stolen moving truck in which they had crossed the toll bridge without paying.

Deputies Gerard Freeman and Walter Yarborough, alerted by Sheriff Gerald V. Price, who had been notified by toll station attendants, spotted the pair. The boys jumped from the vehicle and dashed into nearby woods where they were apprehended by the officers. The truck moving at about 20 miles an hour, nosed into the ditch and halted.

The two confessed to having stolen four automobiles before picking up the truck near Bay

St. Clare's opens building fund drive

Dr. Otto Mollere, Bay St. Louis dentist and lifelong resident of Waveland, has been named general chairman of St. Clare's Parish new church building fund campaign in Waveland, which was announced Monday night by Rev. John T. O'Brien, pastor.

Dr. Mollere will head an organization of men of the parish who will be enlisted as workers in the campaign to renovate the entire rear section of the church, which was constructed in 1890. A brick facade and vestibule portion of the structure were built in 1957.

Two weeks ago the present church building was vacated and wall construction in completed rooms will be paid in the parish hall.

Father O'Brien said plans have been completed for the project but contracts will not be let until conclusion of the fund drive.

"I do not feel it wise to make commitments until we can get an estimate of how much money we will have available for the church," Father O'Brien said. "The amount of money subscribed to the campaign will determine just what kind of a church we can build."

First meeting in the campaign was Monday night at the rectory and was attended by 15 men. Named to key positions in the organization were:

Circuit court in session

Whitten gets rob term

Ray Whitten of near Poplarville drew a 10-year penitentiary sentence on a robbery charge to which he pleaded guilty before Judge Leslie B. Grant in Circuit Court Tuesday as defendants indicted by the September grand jury were arraigned.

On the state's recommendation, the armed robbery charge was reduced to simple robbery. For five years of the term he was placed on probation. Similar charge against Arnold Hickman was passed.

Bobby Ray Evans, indicted for breaking and escaping jail, is to be sentenced the third Friday along with Sammy Earl Jones, charged with grand larceny, and Jack Melver who pleaded guilty on a charge of fencing and not guilty to two others.

A $500 fine was assessed on Paul Nelson for child desertion. No arrests have yet been made on two other true bills for child desertion. Case against Ardis Dedaux, charged with assault and battery, is set for call next Tuesday.

In criminal cases carried over from previous terms of court, a receiving stolen property charge against Obo Slaydon was continued and one against Jerry Slaydon on grand larceny was passed for the files. Also sent to the files were charges of reckless driving and charges on accident and improper driving against Betty Smith. License plates against Betty Smith and grand larceny charges against Charles Glanville, along with Sidney J. Dawson. A false personation of an officer charge against Floyd Fricks, not for Tuesday, was continued.

First jury trial on the civil docket is scheduled today in the case of August Raunet, Jr., vs. John P. and Mary Louise Moloney Stern, slated for Friday is H. G. Davis, Jr., vs. Pure Oil Co. Due to be called Friday is Lloyd Pittman, the Pittman Soave Works, vs. Robert A. Scivique.

On the civil docket, default judgments were entered in the following cases: R. W. Harper, Jr., the Harper Ford Co., vs. Joseph S. Blanchard, $502.93; Tensco, Inc. vs. Mrs. Margie M. Favra Woods, $345.56; Max Borman Furniture Co., Inc., vs. Mr. and Mrs. Vladimir Pacich, Jr., $833.89; Monte-Carver Plumbing Co. vs. John Westcott, $275.69, and vs. Pat F. Bass, $272.30; John Scully, Jr., the Gulf Coast Milling Co. vs. Levaras Ladner, vs. Ray Lodzart, (Cont. on Page 5.)

Circuit court moves to 3 terms a year

When the September term of Circuit Court is concluded next Friday, three sessions a year will commence rather than two as in the past in accordance with a bill enacted by the recent session of the state legislature.

Circuit Clerk Lamar Odis said the new legislation provides for Circuit Court to be convened here the second Monday in January, third Monday in May and second Monday in September.

No grand jury will be called in May unless the number of charges warrants it.

More frequent court terms were provided by deletion of Jackson County from this judicial district.

GOING, GOING, GONE - Many bid eagerly as others look on at Monday's delinquent tax sale held on the steps of Hancock County Courthouse. Due to the large number of properties up for auction, the sale was not completed until late Tuesday afternoon.

French Arrive

The Pope, as we have written, had divided the world in two for Spain and Portugal by drawing a line running north and south on the map of the Atlantic Ocean along the 50th parallel of west longitude. Spain was to have everything that she found on the west side of the line, and Portugal was given the east side. The only part of the Americas that projected into the Portuguese zone was the eastern portion of what was to become Brazil, which enormous country thereby fell to Portugal. It did her little good, however, as there were no such quantities of accumulated gold to be found in Brazil as were gathered by Spain's conquistadors in Mexico and Peru.

To make matters worse Portugal followed the example of Spain and established a Holy Inquisition of her own which, like Spain's, drove out of her country the most valuable classes of citizens. Perhaps from that time Portugal's decline from greatness may be dated.

Both England and France decided to take advantage of the situation and invade Amichel.

silent and moody. To make the situation worse he was uncertain as to the river's longitude on the mouth.

Beauregard became piqued by La Salle's taciturn silence, and also contemptuous of his apparent ignorance about where the river was to which he was taking his ostensible supplies. Daily the two men became more distant and polite to each other; and when at last La Salle suspected that they had gone too far west and had sailed past the Mississippi, and wanted to turn back, Beauregard was in a humor to refuse, so he landed La Salle (early in 1685) on the Bay of San Bernardo, now called Matagorda Bay, several hundred miles west of the Mississippi, and returned to France.

With very little idea of where he was La Salle disembarked, established a post on La Vaca Bay which connected with Matagorda Bay, and spent the next three years wandering through-out the surrounding wilderness (now Texas) looking for his lost river. Meanwhile his people were riddled by Indians and suffered from illnesses and lack of supplies.

At last La Salle decided to return to France by way of Canada to seek help; but he was shot and killed on the way by a disgruntled member of his party late in 1687. What befell those who remained behind at the post is still not known. The Spaniards admitted having sent out several expeditions against the settlement, one of which is said to have discovered it in ruins and without survivors. Spain put the blame on the Indians.

Beauregard had remained in the Bay only long enough to realize the dangers and difficulties to which the settlers would be exposed, especially since he sailed away with an important quantity of their ammunition. On his return to France Louis XIV learned of La Salle's plight and, through other channels, he learned that the Spaniards were searching the coast for La Salle, bent on destroying the French; but still he did nothing about it.

When, however, Henri de Tonti, a devoted friend of La Salle living in the Illinois country, heard that La Salle had arrived on the coast de Tonti set out in search of him at the mouth of the river and for many miles along the coast on either side of it. History tells of a letter which de Tonti left in a hollow tree by a post which he erected near the mouth of the river, and of another letter, written on a piece of bark, which he left with the Quimper Indians, whose camp was about where the United States Barracks now is below New Orleans. De Tonti told the Indians that a white man would call for it.

After killing La Salle and his men, the Spaniards hid the bodies in the Gulf, and then sailed away to the Gulf, where he saw in the river only a way out of a country in which there was no plunder to be found. Again like Louis was interested in gold and silver; but as he doubted the existence of those precious metals in Louisiana he attached no importance to the country and cast a furtive glance toward Spanish Mexico, next door to Louisiana, where he knew there was gold.

Giving La Salle the hint that war with Spain might come some day the king cautioned him to be discreet, and then authorized La Salle to establish a settlement near Mexico.

Together the two organized an expedition and away it sailed under the joint command of La Salle and a French admiral Sieur de Bienville.

Now, it was La Salle's whole intention to find the mouth of the Mississippi, via the Gulf, establish a permanent settlement on the great river, and then found a colony which he might govern as he saw fit. This, of course, did not agree with the king's more practical and clever plan of preparing for a raid on Mexico.

La Salle proceeded over the continent, accompanied by his command of about 100 men and 200 horses. He could not discuss them with Beauregard, so La Salle fell

"MY, HOW OUR TOWN HAS CHANGED"

Your pet poochie

Our readers write

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:

I hope you will see fit to allow me some space in your fine newspaper. Several columns have been printed about people walking down the street at night without any light to point them out in the dark and worse yet with dark clothes on, about girls and boys riding horses through town onto people's lawns to leave their discharge behind. I will agree that all this could be and perhaps is a great hazard, but what about the subject DOGS.

It is virtually impossible to travel but a few blocks down any street in our city without having to go around dogs, not a dog, or nearly step to keep from running over them. I've seen our small children run upon the sidewalks or in vacant lots and fall off their bicycles from dogs chasing them. It is true maybe the dog is not vicious and would not bite anyone but show me one small child that will not become unnerved when confronted with something like that. Even if they don't get bit there is a possibility of breaking a limb or damaging their much cherished bicycle. Do you want that child to be yours?

How do you like to get up in the morning and find that somebody else's dog has been in your yard during the night and saturated your auto tires besides leaving his other mess behind. How do you like for your children to go to school where there are dogs running loose at all times? Even people go berserk on the spur of a moment. How can you be sure one of these dogs won't go mad and bite maybe a dozen children before you can bat an eye. Just think of all the pain the child goes through plus the anxiety of the parents, just because of some person who has a two-bit dog with a $2 tag on his collar. This inconsiderate person thinks that his dog has the privilege to roam at leisure.

Who wants all this? When you complain you are told the matter will be looked into, but when? If you tell the neighbor anything you make an enemy. Let's just give the city to the dogs.

DOG LOVING TAXPAYER

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:

After four years we still enjoy reading the Echo and finding out about our old friends in Bay St. Louis.

Yours truly,

25 YEARS AGO

Sept. 17, 1937 - St. Augustine Seminary, for colored students aspiring for the priesthood and members of the Society of the Divine Word, began its 15th year of operation Friday with 56 students and 14 professors.

10 YEARS AGO

Sept. 19, 1952 - Dan M. Russell was named to the Hancock County Election Commission this week, joining Robert Gaudin and Ora Seal who were re-elected. The three, to serve a two-year term, were chosen by the state commission, composed of Gov. Hugh White, the attorney-general, and the secretary of state.

Welfare Fund Use Safeguards Related

The Department of Public Welfare outlined this week some of the safeguards it uses in disbursing tax money appropriated for assistance purposes because of some public concern about improperly granted public assistance. A definition of what constitutes fraud and the action that will be taken by the Welfare Department in case fraud is suspected is important.

Fraud is defined and the penalty is set out in the state statutes which authorize each public assistance program - Old Age Assistance, Aid to the Blind, Aid to Dependent Children and Aid to the Permanently and Totally Disabled - as follows:

"Whoever obtains, or attempts, or aids, or abets any person to obtain by means of a willfully false statement or representation or by impersonation, or other fraudulent device:

1 - Assistance to which he is not entitled, or
2 - Assistance greater than that to which he is justly entitled, is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon the conviction thereof shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars ($500) or be imprisoned for not more than three months or be both so fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the court." (Laws of 1936, Ch. 175; 1940, Ch. 298).

The responsibility of the county welfare department is to report cases of suspected fraud to the public assistance division of the State Office. If fraud is indicated this division refers the case to the division of legal services for investigation. If the legal division finds that evidence is sufficient to

SUPPORT DEAN Supervisor Beat 1

Harlan G. Dean, better known as "Beagle" to his many friends, constable Beat 1, has announced he is seeking election as supervisor to fill the unexpired term of the late Charles A. Russ, Jr., in a special election to be held Tuesday, October 23.

Mr. Dean was born and reared in Hancock County, he attended Logtown Elementary and Bay St. Louis High schools. After leaving high school he was employed on boats until appointed as deputy sheriff of Hancock County under the administration of Mr. B. D. Johnson where he remained until his election as constable 12 years ago.

He is married to the former Patsy Ruth Levy of Sildall. They have three children, Harlan, Jr., Cheryl Ann and Karen Vern.

Mr. Dean is a man who is dedicated to his duty in serving the residents of Beat 1 and is well qualified to serve in the capacity of supervisor of his beat. He states that if elected, he intends to carry out the plans of the late Charles A. Russ, Jr., in assisting the people who are affected by the NASA space program to relocate their homes. All other plans which Mr. Russ had for the benefit of citizens of Beat 1 will also be carried out.

The office of supervisor carries a great responsibility and the man chosen to assume this task should be one of integrity, ability, honesty and dedicated to serving the people. Harlan G. Dean is this man.

Home Agent Notes

By MARCIA HUGHES.

Some of the predictions of food supplies include: Short crops of nuts. More beef this fall. Plentiful supplies of pears and grapes.

The estimate is that this year's pecan crop will equal to only one package for every three you saw on your grocery's shelves last year. There will be fewer filberts and almonds, too. But if walnuts are your favorites, you will find almost a third more than last year.

California, Oregon and Washington are the principal states that produce Bartlett pears. Their crop this year is about seven per cent larger than last year and three per cent above average. California's grape crop is a large one this year—71,000 pounds more than last year.

Freezing Tips: Pastry crusts that are frozen unbaked will be more tender and flaky and have a fresher flavor than those baked and then frozen.

Crumb and cheese toppings are best added later when frozen food is reheated for serving.

OUTDOOR DRYING OF COTTONS

Recent tests on the effects of outdoor drying of cotton percales show you get different results at different hours of the day and at different times of the year.

For example, more bleaching and more fading occur during the midsummer months. There's better retention of whiteness in your clothes in late summer.

And it's not always the woman who gets her work out first who gets the best results. Clothes come out whiter if you wait until 11 a.m. to hang them on the line.

Fading, the tests conducted at Oklahoma State University's

Officers of the Home Demonstrated Club were re-elected at the Sept. 18 meeting at the home of Mrs. Russell Kinsley, with the exception of the secretary, Mrs. A. Dault, who declined reelection because of recent serious illness. Mrs. Marcia Hughes, agent, introduced and scientist Joe Dunt of Gulfport who gave an informative talk on what can be done to protect one from fall out in case of attack, showed by demonstration with Gieger counter the measurement of air borne fallout after being carried for days and miles from point of contact. A project to raise funds by sponsoring a cookbook of members' recipes was embraced and at the October meeting a luncheon of their favorite dishes, accompanied by the recipe will be tried out in the proof of the pudding is in the eating fashion. The thought of the month tied in with the fall out talk - It's not how LONG we live, but HOW.

Blue Jeans and flower moods

The first meeting of the fall season was held by the Blue Jeans Garden Club Monday Sept. 17, at the home of Mrs. Vivienne Stanno. Judging of arrangements brought ribbons to Mrs. H. Bartleigh in the cultivated class, Mrs. F. Stanno, horticulture; Mrs. B. Peterson, wild; Mrs. J. Rousseau, pot plant and dried; Mrs. V. Stanno, miniature, and Mrs. L. Richmond, entrance.

In the absence of president, Mrs. O. Moran, Mrs. Bartleigh, vice president, presided. An interesting and at some points amusing, article on the control of one's moods, by flowers, was read by Mrs. Stanno. The October meeting will be at the home of Mrs. B. Peterson. November hostess will be Mrs. H. K. Rousseau, and the Christmas party will be in the form of a luncheon at a place to be decided upon later. Present Monday were Misses G. Robertson, L. Griffin, H. Bartleigh, F. Stanno, L. Richmond, J. V. Goodale, J. Salasby, H. K. Rousseau, V. Stanno, J. Rousseau, B. Peterson and Rae Cope.

News of our neighbors

Mrs. Ben Peterson has returned from a two-week vacation in Baton Rouge, where she was the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Rousseau and other members of the family. The Rousseaus' on the corner of the Boulevard and Fourth have remodeled their kitchen in the best of taste and the gleaming white paint on their picket fences does great things for the house.

Get well wishes to Miss Ada Flamborough, Annabel's aunt, and to Verdie Lecher, both of whom have been laid up with high blood pressure, and to Mrs. Ole Moran, Mrs. Dault is improving steadily. Have fun while doing something to add the retarded children, by joining in the cakewalk which the Jaycees are sponsoring Saturday at 8 p.m. The City Fathers have given permission to repossess the beach Blvd. between Court and Main Sts. for the party - go join in the fun and win a fine cake.

Mrs. Edna Rousseau, formerly of Clarendon, now of N. O., mother of Mrs. Nedie Hill and her twin brother, Kirk Rousseau, has been honored by the United Daughters of the Confederacy on completion of her 50 years as a member of that organization. Congratulations.

Mrs. Mauffray elected to diocesan council board

Mrs. Alden Mauffray was elected member at large on the executive board of the Natchez-Jackson Diocesan Council when the West Coast Diocese of the National Council of Catholic Women had its quarterly meeting Sept. 12 at St. Paul's School, Pass Christian.

Among the 28 women from the parishes of St. John, Gulfport, St. Thomas, Long Beach, St. Paul's and Our Lady of the Gulf were from here Mesdames Robert Kemery, Marion Beal, Sylvester Benigno, J. P. Chintche, Jemile Bourgeois, Joseph Caclio, George Stevenson, Charles Giametta, Ivan J. Bradford, Louis Moreau, E. J. Arceneaux, Charles Bouts and Mauffray.

Re. Rev. Msgr. James J. Hanmon, pastor of OLG, gave an inspiring talk, urging the women to participate particularly in the furtherance of their Catholic faith, especially the Retreat.

Ill., which was gay on the occasion with the singing of old Spanish songs and conversation. They hope to extend the next reunion in 10 years.

Enjoying the Corbajals' pier recently were a group from Baton Rouge, La., Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Marier, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bourne, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Anding and Mr. and Mrs. W. Ralston. Even though the creek would not flow and the fish were scarce the 11 days proved much fun.

Miss Kemph is wed to Mr. Church

The marriage of Miss Margie Ann Kemph, daughter of Mrs. Lewis Kemph of Clarendon Harbor and the late Mr. Kemph, and Joseph Albert Church, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Church, was solemnized in the presence of relatives and close friends at 3:30 p.m. Sunday at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church. Rev. Michael Kelly officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, J. L. Levent, III, wore a street dress of beige wool with matching accessories, her corsage was white carnations.

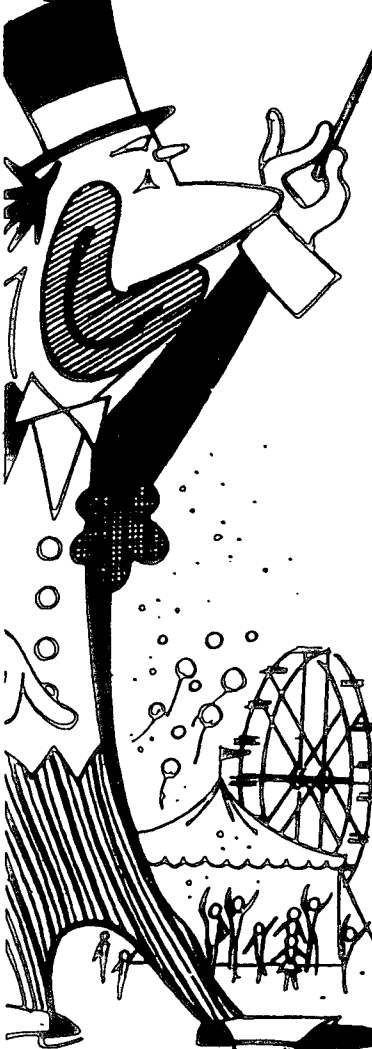

Miss Ann Proctor, maid of honor, chose a costume suit in cream shades with brown accessories. Her corsage was also white carnations.

Stephen Church served as his brother's best man.

Mr. Church leaves late this month for San Francisco, Calif., where he is stationed with the U. S. Navy. He will be joined by Mrs. Church in December.

OLD SPANISH TRAIL, BAY ST. LOUIS

It happened 100 YEARS ago

The oldest incorporated trade association in the country, the United States Brewers Association, was organized in 1862... the same year that -

100 MISSISSIPPI, the Confederate raider "Arkansas," under the command of U. Isaac M. Brown, was in her first encounter with Federal gunboats North of Vicksburg on July 15, 1862.

Then, as now, beer was the traditional beverage of moderation. But beer means more than enjoyment to our state. As 4th largest taxpayer, the Brewing Industry contributes more than 4 million dollars to Mississippi each year - money that helps support our hospitals, schools and highways.

1894, in its centennial year, the United States Brewers Association still works constantly to assure maintenance of high standards of quality and propriety wherever beer and ale are served.

Harry hears ... Local gridders looking up

Bay High and St. Stanislaus both opened the 1962 home football seasons with convincing triumphs last week, neither team surrendering a point. The third Hancock County team, Hancock North Central, was defeated by potent Ocean Springs, but the Hawks the week before came within a whisker of defeating East Central of Wade, and all three high school squads appear to be improved or just as good as last year.

The Rockchaws, playing their first contest under the coaching of Billy Murphy, replacement for Reuben Rutz who moved to Catholic High of Baton Rouge, did not run up as big a score as we anticipated in beating Biloxi St. Martin, but the Rocks showed plenty of defense and seem to be headed for a winning season. A steady rain was a factor in the scoring of both teams.

Fullback Barry Beasberg was a big running star for the Rocks, gaining nice yardage on line smashes, while tailbacks Darryl Rhodes and Colman Jones, alternating with every play, handled much of the running and passing chores. Rhodes had the best of it in Friday's contest, but the fleet Jones, since track star a few months ago, is hard to catch once he gets room and looked good on end sweeps.

Backs Mickey Kingston and Paul Fusillo also made some good plays for Murphy's charges, running from the single-wing all night. The Rockchaw attack showed little variation, but with the big line Stanislaus has and a fast backfield, good blocking should bring it success.

Will to beat the Terriers

Sunday afternoon Stanislaus runs up against St. Francis De Sales in Houma, La., and the Rocks are looking for a victory after losing the past two seasons to the Terriers. St. Francis, a strong squad in late years, isn't rated as highly in '62 and goes into the game with a 1-1 record. They should provide a formidable foe, however—much better than St. Martin, one of the coast's weaker teams.

It's hard to say how good Stanislaus' line is as you can't judge them by their play against the Yellowjackets, but they do have size, and if two or three of the Rock linemen hit a small back at the same time, we hope there's a doctor handy! Stanislaus' line averages over 200 pounds but size isn't everything and they'll have to put their weight to work.

Bay High looked particularly impressive against Pass High Thursday night. The Tigers were down the Pirates in the first two 12-minute periods, then moved in for the kill in the second half.

The Tigers play Carriere this week at Stanislaus Stadium, and even though Bay High will have a rough fight on their hands, this actually isn't as important to the team as another game taking place the same night, Ocean Springs and Long Beach, two teams we think Bay High will battle for the Gulf Coast Conference crown, have at each other and the Tigers, if they're to cap the championship, will have to beat the winner.

Tigers face toughies at home

Bay High has a big advantage this season in that they play their three toughest foes, Pass High, Long Beach, and Ocean Springs all at home. The Greyhound contest Nov. 9 marks homecoming night.

Cochs Lance Lumpkin's Tigers want to win over Carriere badly, well remembering games between the two schools in '60 and '61. Two years back when Bay High won the conference crown, the Blue Devils, not in the league, edged the locals 14-13 at Bay St. Louis when Bay High missed an extra point with 30 seconds left in the game. Last season, Carriere pushed across a touchdown and PAT in the final minutes at Carriere to win a 14-7 decision, Bay High wants revenge, and we think they'll get it.

Frank Miller, Davey Smith, Richard Schaefer, Teddo Thomas, Jerry Thomas, Alvin Ladner, Billy Thomas, Chuck Breath, Bill Pahlman, and Don Everett all played tremendous ball in the line for Bay High. It might seem monotonous, our mentioning all these linemen each week, but they've done such a job we can't leave them out. And if Bay High's going to beat Carriere, Long Beach, Poplarville, Slidell, and Ocean Springs, they'll have to continue playing just as well.

Sophomore Johnny Penton took over the starting quarterback assignment for Lumpkin's eleven against Pass High, and showed almost 100 per cent improvement over the previous week. Penton ran well, threw a nice touchdown pass, and mixed up his plays in good fashion. Halfback Don Saucier still is the offensive meal ticket, although the Bengal backfield is rounding into form better than most folks expected.

It's kinda lean up county

Ezell Lee, in his first year at North Central, has only 14 boys to work with and two are out with injuries. The Hawks have scored touchdowns in both of their first two games and we're looking for the county school to finally win a game before too very long.

On the Hawk roster this year are ends, Jerry Neacise, Wayne Ladner, Berlin Ladner; tackles, Gerald Page and Wendell Ladner; guards, Doyle Moore, Kenneth Peterson, Charles Wood; center, Werlin Ladner; quarterbacks, Eddie Peterson and Adron Peuncy; halfbacks, Kenny Randall and Jimmy Smith; fullback, Junior Neacise.

If the Hawks have any success, whatsoever, Lee will have to be congratulated. With such a small team, it's hard to play against Bay High, Long Beach, etc.

Predicting the collegians

Miami was the first major college game of the season Saturday afternoon, bounding Pittsburgh 23-14 and looking very, very good. The Hurricanes are definitely one of the country's better teams. SEC play opens Friday night and Saturday, and with it we begin another year of grid predictions.

New that half our readers have probably left, upon viewing the previous paragraph, we'll announce our weekly hunches to those remaining. This year we'll attempt to forecast 20 contests weekly, covering all SEC games and the other major nationwide clashes.

Looking first at the SEC, we like Alabama over Georgia and Mississippi State over Florida in an upset in the only conference meetings. It'll be Georgia Tech over Clemson, Kentucky over Florida State, L. S. U. over Texas A and M, Ole Miss over Memphis State, Stanford over Tulane, and West Virginia over Vanderbilt.

Elsewhere, Duke over Southern California (nationally televised), Indiana over Kansas State, Kansas over TCU, Maryland over SMU, Missouri over California, Penn State over Navy, Army over Wake Forest, Northwestern over South Carolina, Syracuse over Oklahoma, Texas over Oregon, Purdue over Washington, and Mississippi Southern over Richmond.

LEROY CARRIES FOR TIGERS

Bay High blanks Pass Saucier's sprints abet Tiger victory

Senior halfback Don Saucier, masquerading as the "ghost of Bobby Van Calsem", and a spectacular defense-minded crew of linemen, living up to all pre-season expectations and more, sent a good Pass Christian Pirates football team off the field in a dull Thursday night when the Bay High Tigers erupted for 19 points in the second half for a 19-0 Gulf Coast Conference victory at St. Stanislaus Stadium.

Cochs Lance Lumpkin's Bengals, although racking up 125 yards total offense in the first half, couldn't break the scoring ice until after the mid-game intermission, but once the inexperienced Bay High ball-handlers got moving, the scrappy Pirates were not a match.

The first two quarters, though scoreless, were solid with excitement. With the ball on the Bay High 43, following a Tiger fumble recovery, Saucier broke into the open down the eastern sidelines and was pulled down from behind on the 18 after a 39-yard gallop. Bay High traveled as far as the 16, lost the ball on downs, got it back on a fumble, and moved to the 10 before a mix-up in the backfield resulted in a Pass High linemen taking the ball away and darting downfield to the Pass 31, ending the first period.

The Tigers took the ball back early in the second quarter, and following a 15-yard penalty, a Leroy Lake-Davey Smith pass fell just short of a first down at the Bay High 42, after a good run by the Bengal end. With 4:15 to go in the half, Bay High started a drive on their own 22 which ended when with time running out, a Lake pass was intercepted near the end zone. Saucier quarterback Johnny Penton, who engineered the march, and halfbacks Gaudier Mayfield and Tim Fegan all ran well in the drive.

The Pirates, outwitted by the locals, were overpowered in the third quarter as Bay High chalked up two touchdowns quick as a wink. Taking the Pass kick-off on the Tiger 36, quarterback Penton, moving into a first-string berth, sprinted around and on a keeper play for 31 yards, then seconds later hit Saucier in the clear with a T. D. pass from 27 yards out. The extra point attempt was successful.

VCI opens play here Saturday

Valena C. Jones gridders launch their home season Saturday night against the Biloxi Indians after an opening game less to the Wiggins Rebels at the victor's stadium last Friday, according to Coach Willie Bradley.

Wiggins triumphed 19-6 after being deadlocked 6-6 at the half. Martin Collins was the leading back for the Jones squad, gaining 56 yards in seven carries while Walter Wavers caught three passes for 92 yards and one touchdown. Holding up the line well for the locals were Leroy Haynes, Robert Venture, William Singleton, Clevon Williams and Arthur Clementine.

Kick-off time against Biloxi is 7:30 p.m. Saturday at Stanislaus Stadium. Assisting Bradley with coaching duties is James Pate while this year's cheering squad is composed of Adrella Aker, Eartha Dorsey, Ann Saucier, Stella Long, Earlene Anderson, Christine Moore, Christine Lewis and Janice Christman.

Schedule for the remainder of the year is:
Sept. 28, at North Gulfport;
Oct. 6, at Poplarville; Oct. 13, at Lumbago, La.; Oct. 20, at Columbia; Oct. 26, at Purvis;
Nov. 3, Ocean Springs, homecoming here; Nov. 17, Pass Christian, here.

Route of trip from Detroit to the end of the Baja Peninsula, over 8,000 miles.

Millions of years ago nature fashioned a proving ground for trucks that man can never duplicate. Today it is known as the Baja (bah' bah) California Peninsula, Mexico.

These pictures give you only a bare idea of the place. The road is fine for 140 miles below the U.S. border. Then the beating begins. Rocks and hard-baked ruts bang, jab and jolt the trucks from stem to stern. Loose sand makes them struggle and strain. Dust chokes them. Heat roasts them. Rivers drench them.

The Baja Run took this Chevrolet truck caravan 17 days to go the 1,066 miles. All the trucks performed magnificently. Not one was forced to drop out because of mechanical difficulty.

Trucks that can take this kind of beating can take on your toughest truck jobs. Come in now and see tough quality-built '63 Chevrolet trucks with all their new improvements.

Use return address on mail, Becker asks

An extremely valuable part of our service to the public depends on the sender's furnishing a complete and correct return address on all mail matter, Postmaster Andy Becker said this week.

The following rules must be followed if your return address is to provide the maximum service benefits to you:

1. The proper location is in the upper left corner on envelopes, cards, labels, tags, and wrappers.
2. The return address should be complete and legible, including the name of the sender, the street address or box number, the city and the state. In the case of multiple dwelling units, the apartment number or the unit number should be shown. In the case of hotels and office buildings, the room number should be indicated.

If you habitually follow the simple rules, that important letter or that valuable parcel will be returned to you undamaged. You will then know with certainty when your mailings have not reached the addressee and you will be able to take whatever corrective action you think essential. In the overwhelming majority of cases, when your letter or parcel is undeliverable, your friend, business associate, or other correspondent will appreciate your courtesy and thoughtfulness in providing the return address in the upper left corner where it is readily accessible. The consistent use of a return address on your mail is the best method of insuring that your correspondents are aware of your correct, current address.

Postmaster Becker cautions mailers not to place the return address in any position other than in the upper left corner of the mailing piece or label. Postal employees are required to process large volumes of mail.

Campaign opens next Thursday

Operation safety is Jaycee effort

Safe driving and use of seat belts are to be emphasized when local Jaycees become the first in the state to begin Operation Safety at 9:30 a.m. next Thursday, Sept. 27.

The program, in cooperation with nationwide efforts of Jaycees and the National Safety Council, opens with a presentation by G. W. Harper of the Mississippi Highway Patrol and Public Safety Commission, at Bay High School auditorium, to be followed by another for airmen through 12th grade students from St. Joseph Academy, St. Stanislaus and North Central at the A. and G. Theater at 8 p.m. with no admission charge.

There will also be a safety film in addition to the regular show at 8:30 p.m. at the A. and G. the same night for regular ticket prices. Two door prizes, a set of safety belts, and a pass to the theater, good for one month, are to be awarded.

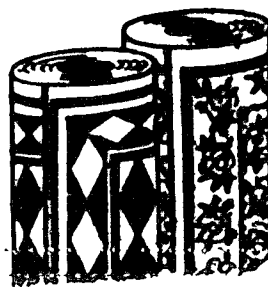

Saturday, Sept. 29, seat belts will be sold at reduced prices and installed free of charge by Jaycees between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. on Beach Blvd. in front of the Jaycee Home.

This safety campaign is designed to reduce fatalities in Hancock County and has the endorsement of local school officials.
